INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

COURT OF CLERK
EASTERN CHEROKEES
Rec. JAN 12 1910
No. 12509

Vian, Okla, Jan 9th, 1910.

Mr. Guion Miller,
Commissioner,

Sir:---

Mr. Alex McCoys further statement in the claim of Mr. De-ki-eas-ky Coon, # appli 12509. further states to me that his own and applicants grand father was named Chin Uby, and that in the old Cherokee Nation east resided in Tennessee, and that his Alex McCoys father McCoy, was also from same state east-- and both living in 1835---

I see from my list of names of enrollments of Cherokees in 1835, that he appears to be correct in his information of such facts--

As I have before stated in the case, and from all the facts and circumstances connected therewith, my case appears clear for favorable action--and so ask--

I add this in case any doubt may yet exist in the matter, while I am satisfied as to right on status of my client, and while yet the lamp burns, I respectfully submit my case--

Respectfully,

J. L. Springer

Starr Miller, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Starr Miller is my name. My age is 36 years. I was born and raised in Sequoyah District. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission. I have not my roll number with me. I am a full-blood Cherokee Indian. My father's name was Cah-nah-he-lee. His English name was Jackson Miller. These are the only names I know. He had a sister named Sallie Miller. Chi-ne-lah-kih was another sister. Chi-ne-lah-kih married Eli. Sallie married a man by the name of Tom Procter. Che-ne-luh-kee was the name. She lived in Sequoyah District. Sun-necoo-yah or Sun-negoo-yeh, was her brother. He lived in Flint. He used to live in Sequoyah. I think they were the only two. My father's name was Law-lih or Law-lee, or La-lee. He lived in Flint District. My father's mother's name ~~was~~ I cannot give. Gar-de-ter-ter was my mother's name; Ella Miller in English. Ah-daw-see-noh or Procter in English is a brother to my mother. There was a sister named Chi-see-see; she lived in Sequoyah. There was ^{one} named Annit. My mother's father's name was George Chu-l~~stenis~~-see or Chu-les-see-ah, ~~XXXXXX~~ My mother's mother's name I do not know. They came out here with the migration. I don't think my mother drew money in 1851 but I think my uncles on the Procter side, Ah-claw-see-nee Procter, drew at that time. I think my grandfather drew in 1851. He drew with the Emigrants. They never associated with any other tribe of Indians.

No. 12571.

Larah Cross, being first duly sworn,
deposes and says:

My name is Larah Cross: I was born in Alabama,
I don't know what part: I claim no Indian blood
through my mother: I make no claim through my father, who is a German: my mother's maiden name was Frances Maline Good: I don't know when or where my mother was born: I was about twelve years old when my mother died:
my mother died in Louisiana: she died in 1855: my mother claimed her Cherokee blood through her father, Trammel
Good: I don't know where my grandfather was born:
I don't know where my mother and her father were living: in 1851 my mother was living in Mississippi:
no records were kept at that time; I think: neither her father nor my grandfather through whom I claim were ever enrolled or ever received any money or land that I know of:
I don't know whether my mother ever lived with the Cherokees or not: I think my grandfather lived with the Cherokees, but I do not know exactly where:
I have never made application before the War's Commission;
my grandfather was half Cherokee.

June 14, 1907.

Mrs. J. T. Hunt,
Fort Smith,
Arkansas.

Sir:-

Your letter of May 14, 1907, relative to an application filed by you under your maiden name, Callie Landrum, is at hand.

We are unable to locate any application filed under the above name, but there is an application on file under the name of Sallie Landrum, which may be the one you refer to. You state in your letter that you have received a card receipt for your application, but you do not give the number of your application as instructed to do in the said receipt.

You are further advised that none of the applications have been taken up for final consideration, as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, an abstract of which is herewith inclosed, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 24,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States,

#2--Mrs. J.T. Hunt:

it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

as to inform me of the amount allowed by the court of claims for each Eastern Cherokee citizen.

I ask this information, in order that I may be equipped to attend to my own affairs, without incurring the risk of being grafted by the many so-called Indian agents and lawyers, who live by praying, like vultures upon the ignorant Indians.

I was married on the 11th day of April last, to Mr. J. T. Hunt, of this city; therefore you will kindly use the address given on the enclosed envelope.

Thanking you in anticipation of your early favor,

Misc.

Tava Dillard, after being first duly sworn,
deposes and says:

I was born in Swain County, N.C.; am 53 years of age; I claim my Indian blood through my father. He lives in Fannin County, Ga. I do not know if he made an application. I do not know if he ever received any Indian money from the government. Never saw my grandparents.
My mother told me I had Indian blood. She said my grandfather and great-grandfather had Indian blood in them.
I do not remember if my father spoke the Indian language.
He lives with white people and is a voter. Hester, the government agent never took my name that I know of.
I have never tried to get any Indian money prior to this time.
